

Holocaust Museum Houston
presents

Photograph courtesy of USHMM.

Unlikely Liberators showing through July 4, 2005

An exhibition documenting the story of Japanese American and African American soldiers who served their country with honor during WWII, despite prejudice at home, and courageously participated in the liberation of the concentration camps of Europe .

also on display

Sugihara:
Japanese Righteous Gentile showing through August 25, 2005

An exhibit of rare documents and artifacts telling the story of Japanese diplomat Chiune Sugihara, who was responsible for saving the lives of thousands of Jews from the Nazis.

These exhibits are underwritten by Marathon Oil Company
Donna Fujimoto Cole with special thanks to Asia Society Texas

Asian Pacific American Heritage Association
Consulate General of Japan at Houston
The Buffalo Soldiers National Museum
The Japan-America Society of Greater Houston Japanese American Citizens League-Houston

Continental Airlines

Official Airline of Holocaust Museum Houston

5401 Caroline Street
Houston, TX 77004
713.942.8000
www.hmh.org

Photograph courtesy of USHMM.