GO FOR BROKE PROJECT

Japanese American Citizens League Houston, Texas

The Japanese American Citizens League of Houston, Texas

The Japanese American Citizens League is a non-profit, educational, human and civil rights organization. The JACL promotes and defends the interests of Americans of Japanese ancestry as well as the interests of other minority groups.

Founded in 1975, the Houston Chapter is the only JACL chapter in the State of Texas. It provides educational and cultural programs which increase public awareness and understanding of Japanese Americans.

The JACL of Houston welcomes Americans and non-Americans, Asians and non-Asians, Japanese Americans and non-Japanese Americans alike into its membership to further its goals.
